

Music City Tour Guide

While in Nashville, see these sites!

We asked our friend Carol Pipes from Lifeway to share her faves, all an easy walk from Music City Center.

Barista Parlor

610 Magazine St. - 15 minute walk

Yes, they've got great coffee, but they also have one of the best biscuits in town.

Jack's Bar-B-Que

416 Broadway - 5 minute walk

Great little BBQ joint on Broadway only a few blocks from the Music City Center. Grab a plate of ribs and head upstairs!

Ryman Auditorium

116 5th Ave. N - 5 minute walk

Originally built as the Union Gospel Tabernacle, it became a concert hall in the 1920s and home to the Grand Ole Opry in 1943. If you can't catch a concert, consider taking a backstage tour.

Arnold's Country Kitchen

605 8th Ave. S - 10 minute walk

A favorite of locals, this reminds me of Sunday dinner at Grandma's. Specials change daily. Make sure you save room for pie!

National Museum of African American Music

510 Broadway, 4 minute walk

Nashville's newest museum celebrates more than 50 music genres and styles created, influenced, and inspired by African Americans, including an exhibit on the "Golden Age of Gospel."

Visit Nashville's full-scale replica of ancient Greece's Parthenon, built to celebrate Nashville as the "Athens of the South."

Centennial Park

2500 West End Ave - 2 miles

Okay, that's a long walk, you might want to drive.

Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum

222 Rep. John Lewis Way S - 1 minute walk

These boots were made for walking...right around the corner to one of the world's largest musical collections. Your tour concludes in the Hall of Fame rotunda.

Puckett's

500 Church St.

10 minute walk

Local Southern cooking birthed out of Franklin, Tennessee. Check out their downtown location. In June, you'll want your tea ice-cold and sweet.
